

'Bringing 21st century ventilation solutions to your home'

A visualisation of the movement of air in an unvented dwelling!

The arrows demonstrate the air flow of a non ventilated dwelling and illustrate how warm moist air created from cooking and bathing can move to the cooler parts of the property.

As external temperatures drop, the outside wall temperatures fall below the dew point of the trapped air and condensation will form and mould will follow soon after if left unchecked.

